Re: Weekly Report

Legal

- The Legal Department reviewed a letter that has been sent to a business that is operating without a business license, without final building and fire inspections, and without providing the required amount of parking.
- At the August 13th budget retreat, the City Council directed that the remaining furloughs be cancelled for the rest of the year, starting with the furlough scheduled for September. Acting City Attorney Tim George is putting together the process to effectuate that direction.

Police Department

- School Resources Officer Justin Cripe served as the Course administrator for a three week Drug Recognition Expert School for law enforcement officers across Washington State. The course was held for two weeks in Chelan, and field certifications were held for one week at the Maricopa County Jail in Arizona. The Des Moines Police Department plans to host the final examination.
- August 7th
 - DUI drugs arrest made at the 1800 block of Kent Des Moines Road. The suspect was taken to the hospital for a blood draw, and booked into jail.
- August 9th
 - Subject threw a rock through a window at the Woodmont Library and subsequently burglarized the library, making away with a number of large and expensive items. Suspect was observed by one of our Sergeants pushing a book cart containing the items stolen from the earlier burglary. Suspect was taken into custody and booked into jail on charges of Burglary and Possession of Stolen Property.
- August 10th
 - Officers responded to a Home invasion robbery. Victim heard an unknown person outside his home. Approximately 19 minutes later, the suspect attacked the victim with a baseball bat. The suspect then stole the victim's vehicle and fled the scene. A patrol officer soon spotted the suspect and a short pursuit ensued, resulting in the suspect crashing the victim's vehicle through the north gate of Woodmont

Elementary. Suspect then fled on foot. Officers located him on top of the roof of a residence. He was eventually taken off the roof and booked into jail.

- August 10th
 - Officers responded to a reported overdose in the parking lot of Salty's. A male was found on the ground unresponsive and a black Toyota Sienna van was seen leaving the area at a high rate. When fire arrived the victim was not breathing and a faint pulse. He was partially revived with Narcan but medics say he had something else in his system as well. Subject was transported by aid to a local hospital.
- August 11th
 - Officers responded to a report of a suspicious person behind Safeway on 272nd and Pacific Highway South. When officers approached the suspect fled on foot. Two of our officers were able to overtake him and he was arrested and booked on multiple warrants, including a DOC escape warrant.

Planning, Building, and Public Works Department

- The Redondo Boardwalk project is expected to be complete by the end of the month.
- An expansion joint on the south abutment of the South Twin Bridge located south of South 252nd Street on 16th Avenue South needs to be replaced.
- Staff will be discussing the potential expansion of the Pacific Ridge Commercial zoning designation to the south eastern part of Pacific Ridge with the Finance and Economic Development Committee at its next meeting. In particular, staff will discuss current workloads and how this project would fit into the Committee and Council's work plan for this year and next.
- Only one bid was received for the Parkside Park project. It was 35+ percent over the engineer's estimate for the project. Staff will be bring to Council a recommendation to reject this bid and to rebid the project later in the year or early next year.

Parks, Recreation, and Senior Services

- The Field House roof replacement started last week and is proceeding on schedule.
- Facility Rentals- A broad variety of organizations have visited the City's recreation facilities this week including Northwest Center for their Summer Picnic, US Coast Guard for training for bomb sniffing dogs, Highline School District Teacher Retreats, BBB summer picnic and upcoming in September a two-day Alaska Airlines quarterly meeting.
- Camp KHAOS – 134 Camp KHAOS participants traveled to the Fun Center this week.
- 921 of DMLF Raffle tickets netting $4,605 have been sold to date for Youth Recreation Scholarships. The lucky winner will be drawn at the upcoming summer concert featuring The Coats on August 24th.

Marina

- Staff attending a webinar to learn more about the Pokemon Go phenomena and how to potentially control the impacts and take advantage of the fact that so many people are now visiting our Marina!
